

INTERNAL SAFETY DATA SHEET Transactive

According to Regulation (EC) No 1907/2006

Version: 1.01 (2018)

1. IDENTIFICATION OF THE SUBSTANCE OR MIXTURE AND OF THE SUPPLIER

1.1. Name of the substance

Transactive (active substance)

Transactive

1.2. Recommended uses of the substance or mixture and all other uses

Transactive (active substance)

Transactive (active substance) (preparation)

all uses

Transactive is a neuroleptic drug used for the treatment of schizophrenia. It is a second-generation antipsychotic drug. It is used for the treatment of schizophrenia and bipolar disorder. It is also used for the treatment of depression and anxiety disorders.

Details of the uses of the substance or mixture are given in the following table:

Transactive (active substance)

Use(s)

all uses (active substance)

Transactive (preparation)

all uses (preparation)

Form

all uses (preparation)

Use

all uses (preparation)

Transactive (preparation)

all uses (preparation)

Form

all uses (preparation) (preparation) (preparation)

1.3. Supplier's name

all uses (preparation) (preparation)

Transactive (preparation)

2. HAZARD IDENTIFICATION

2.1. Classification of the substance or mixture

Classification according to Regulation (EC) No 1272/2008

Classification according to GHS

2.2. Label elements

Classification according to Regulation (EC) No 1272/2008

Classification according to GHS

Label elements

H302

Harmful if swallowed (acute toxicity)

H312

Harmful to aquatic life

H332

Harmful to the environment

Other information